Docket No: 2018-318-E

Dear Ms. Boyd:

On November 20, 2019, our office filed a Notice of Cross-Appeal with the South Carolina Supreme Court in the above referenced matter. We thereafter filed a stamped copy of the Cover Letter, Notice of Cross-Appeal, and the Proof of Service with your office.

When our office filed the Cover Letter, Notice of Cross-Appeal, and Proof of Service with the Clerk's Office at the Supreme Court, the Clerk's Office inadvertently stamped these documents as filed November 19, 2019, instead of November 20, 2019. The Supreme Court has corrected the filing date, and we are hereby resubmitting copies with the corrected date.

In addition, the Notice of Cross-Appeal filed with the Supreme Court had complete copies of the orders issued by the Public Service Commission being appealed. However, when our office scanned a copy of the orders being appealed for electronic filing with the Public Service Commission, the scan was made of a copy of the orders in which the pages were front and back. Inadvertently, only the fronts of the pages were scanned. Consequently, the even-numbered pages of Orders No. 2019-341 and 2019-454 were omitted and Order No. 2019-545 was omitted because it was a single page. The copy of the Notice of Cross-Appeal we are resubmitting with this letter includes the complete orders of the Public Service Commission being appealed, as they were filed with the Supreme Court.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
